Our Support Principles

Celgene is sensitive to the legitimate interests of various stakeholders, including employees, communities, healthcare providers and organizations that operate in the areas of Celgene businesses. Funding provided to organizations may be made in response to a funding request or proactively at the discretion of the company.

Compliance

Celgene is committed to conducting business in compliance with and all applicable federal and state laws and regulations all Celgene policies, American Medical Association ("AMA") Guidelines on Gifts to Physicians, the AMA Ethical Opinion on Continuing Medical Education, the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America ("PhRMA") code on Interactions with Healthcare Professionals, the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education ("ACCME") Standards for Commercial Support, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") regulations and guidance, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Inspector General ("OIG") guidance.

Types of Support

Celgene defines funding requests into certain categories which can differ from the terminology used by requesting organizations. To avoid delays in reviewing a funding application, it is important that requestors understand Celgene's categories as described below. To apply for funding from Celgene, please click below to determine which type of support may be appropriate based on the nature of the request:

- Healthcare Related Donations >
- Charitable & Philanthropic Donations >
- Sponsorships >
- Corporate Memberships >

accommodation costs or similar pass-through expenses). Use of Celgene budget templates is encouraged, but not required.

Welcome, Test Account!

The organization you are currently associated with is Celgene Test Organization.

If you work with multiple organizations, click here to add a new organization to your account.

You have reached the funding request page for Donations. If you believe you have reached this page in error, please click here to return to the Celgene webpage that describes the different types of funding that may be available.

The Celgene Funding Request Application consists of four main sections, each of which must be completed for your request to be considered.

1. Contact Information pertaining to you as a representative for your organization.
2. Information pertaining to your organization and partner organizations (if any).
3. The Request your organization is submitting for approval.
4. Certifications and submission of your request.

Once completed, all applications created in Celgene Funding Request Application are immediately submitted to Celgene. Once received, you may be contacted seeking additional information from Celgene. Timely responses to such requests are essential to the review process. Requests are typically reviewed within 45-60 days, but may take longer depending on complexity and the timeliness of responses to request for information.

We recommend that you familiarize yourself with the online application. To create a new application, click the "Start a New Application" link at the bottom of this page. You may also save your applications now and return to work on them later. To continue work on an unsubmitted application, click the "Continue" link next to the application's Project Title. To view an application previously submitted to Celgene, click the "View" link next to the appropriate Project Title.

Each page will have a timeline like the one below to help you monitor your progress. The line and text will indicate your current position within the application process. If you have technical questions regarding this application, use the link located at the bottom of every page to contact our support team.
